

World History Center

2016 Graduate Student Research Award

The World History Center will award a research grant of $2000 to a graduate student in the History Department at the University of Pittsburgh. All Pitt graduate students in History are eligible. This award is to support research or the development of research tools relevant to the study of world history.

Applications consist of (1) a two-page letter of application explaining the project and (2) a letter of reference from the applicant's faculty advisor. Application materials are to be sent electronically to the Katie Jones (joneskh@pitt.edu) at the World History Center by March 15, 2016.

The World History Center Awards Committee will review the applications and select the recipients. The award will be announced by April 15, and the funds will be available from July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017.

At the conclusion of the research project, the award recipient will write a two-page paper summarizing project activities and submit it to the director of the World History Center.

World History Center

2016 Faculty Research Award

The World History Center will award a research grant of $2000 to a University of Pittsburgh faculty member working on an interdisciplinary, transnational historical topic. All faculty members at the university are eligible for this award.

To apply please send a two-page letter of application explaining the project and a current curriculum vitae. Application materials are to be sent electronically to the Katie Jones (joneskh@pitt.edu) at the World History Center by March 15, 2016.

The World History Center Awards Committee will review the applications and select the recipient. The award will be announced by April 15, and the funds will be available from July 1 2016 to June 30 2017.

At the conclusion of the research project, the awardee is encouraged to present a public lecture on the topic, to be arranged through the World History Center.