

World History Center Graduate Travel Awards:

Twice each academic year, once in the Fall semester and once in the Spring semester, the World History Center grants two Graduate Travel Awards of $250. These awards support graduate students in any Pitt department for travel to a professional meeting. Successful applicants must demonstrate that participating in the meeting is a contribution to world-historical study.

The application consists of a one-page letter of application and a two-page CV (including an indication of the applicant's faculty advisor). The letter of application should describe the proposed meeting and the purpose of attending, with attention to explaining how participation in the meeting will contribute to the applicant's world-historical study.

The Spring 2016 deadline for applications is March 15, 2016. Awards will be announced by April 15 for travel to take place during the 2016 calendar year. Please submit applications electronically to World History Center Administrator Katie Jones at joneskh@pitt.edu.
